Picturesque... is an understatement when it comes to the incredible views that surround this gorgeous almost 5000 sq ft home! Cruise/Coast up the stately driveway to your 3 car garage, and even more additional parking space. Step along the slate walkway to the front door and get taken aback by the breathtaking view. As you enter the French doors and heightened glass entry into the two story foyer, you will begin to realize that no detail has been missed; enjoy the homes~ design, including crystal doorknobs, to the decorative staircase. You will be surrounded by the stunning views of nature, from every single window of this home. The main level offers so much character, with a lovely flow and wide entries to each room. The welcoming and spacious Great Room with brick fireplace and crown molding, is ready for entertaining or weekend binge-watching. This room has 2 sets of French doors to allow access to one of the two, decks. The formal Dining Room with hardwood floors, crown molding and chair rail, is
